International Association for Jazz Education
Missouri Unit

April 16, 2005 2:00pm Rock Bridge High School; Columbia, Missouri
Executive Board Meeting

Attendance: John Hahn, Steve Sampsel, Stan Minor, Leon Bradley, Jeff Melsha

Minutes from the last Executive Board meeting (1/05) were read and approved by Leon, Steve seconded the approval.

Leon gave a MOIAJE Commission report. Jeff Jarvis has finished the commission. "Bistro Latino" will be shipped after May 15. It is a "MEDIUM" difficulty salsa/samba. Steve made a motion to pay Jeff Jarvis $750.00 for the commission, Stan seconded the motion.

Steve gave an All-State Jazz Band review. Further discussion on the percussion position took place. Steve would like to remove the percussion audition from the rotation when we reprint in three years.

John listed his proposals for the May 21 MMEA board Meeting:

1. Jazz Vice President
2. Establish a panel to review audition tapes for MMEA performances)
3. A performance slot for middle school jazz band

Jeff will realign our Missouri Unit by-laws to conform to the new National IAJE by-laws. Leon made a motion, Steve seconded.

Who is our Regional Supervisor? Contact with this person is more essential now.

John would like to continue our mid-August meeting with Board and Jazz Vice-Presidents. This date has been set for Sunday, August 14th
Executive Board at Noon
Vice Presidents (or representative) at 1:00
Rock Bridge High School

Some suggested some fundraising ideas for the unit:
50/50 drawings
Benefit Concert

Discussion of upcoming elections and nominations continued. John will contact the names he has received and will pass these on to Jeff ASAP.

Names for All-Collegiate Jazz Band and All-State Jazz Band directors were discussed. John will make contact soon and hopefully have people in place by MBA.

Jess Cole nominations are being accepted. We have two names thus far.

In the event that private donations could be received, what would our unit do with the funds. Scholarships, endowments, etc...

Meeting Adjourned at 3:30

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeff Melsha
