International Association for Jazz Education Missouri Unit

Membership Meeting
June 25, 2007
MBA Convention, Port Arrowhead Lodge

Stan called the meeting to order at 5:40.

Cathy gave a financial report that concluded the 2006-07 fiscal year. Our year-end balance is 662.22.

Jeff gave a status report on the 2007-08 commission by Antonio J. Garcia. The etudes should be posted by July 1.

Stan introduced the new officers who were present: Bob Long, president-elect; and Lori Hutton, secretary. Not present, but recognized was Tim AuBuchon, who will move to president and Michael Pagan, who will become vice president on July 1. Jeff Melsha will continue to serve as webmaster.

Stan introduced Larry Green, IAJE regional coordinator who introduced Mary Jo Papich who is president-elect for IAJE.

Mary Jo Papich discussed the 2008 IAJE Convention in Toronto and the initiative in Park City, Utah for the Teacher Training Institute. Her email address is mjpapich@yahoo.com

Larry Green discussed the recent reports and the strength of the Missouri Unit.

Both Mr. Green and Ms. Papich were complimentary of the unit, and shared ideas to assist in our goals for improvement. We all agreed that our membership numbers are somewhat down and that we need to solicit more associate and patron memberships. Ms. Papich remarked that election ballots could be done electronically in the future to save postage.

Stan announced that the 2008 Missouri All-State Jazz Band clinician would be Michael Phillip Mossman.

Meeting adjourned at 6:15pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeff

Jeff Melsha
MOIAJE Secretary.
